Verse

C (G D)

No eye has seen, no ear has heard
How the glory of God is gonna cover the world
It will silence the tongues of men
And give the children freedom to dance again
They will dance again

I will be clay in the potter's hand
I will be light in a darkened land
I will be love lit on fire
Holy Spirit burning on the inside

I will be color to the black and gray
I'll raise a banner up in Jesus' name
I will be love lit on fire
Holy Spirit burning on the inside

This old world keeps falling apart
But Jesus is coming to wherever you are Breathing life on the desert floor
And resurrection on the faces of the poor
